Novalja

A town that breathes from its heart

An early morning chat on the seaside promenade, a cup of coffee in the old part of town, boats setting sail... Novalja will enchant you with the Mediterranean temperament of its inhabitants as well as with the constant vivacity of its streets and squares.

Enjoy the many events, klapa singing on the promenade, shopping, little taverns and restaurants. Many pleasant terraces await you where you can engage in a lively conversation with the locals about the quality of the fruits of nature or you can just enjoy the shade of palm trees and the view of the sea.

Novalja

The hands of the islanders have for generations been transforming the essence of herbs and sea salt into the island's finest delicacy, Pag cheese. The fusion of natural ingredients and traditional delicacies opens up the appetite. Have a taste of tradition in lamb or fish dishes or sweets made by Novalja's nonas. And to make the meal perfect, have a glass of wine from the Novalja plain...

Novalja

Governments and rulers have changed but Novalja has held on to its identity, preserving the reminders of past times. The remains of a Roman aqueduct carved into the cliffs, a sunken ancient city and the mosaic in the early Christian basilica are all parts of the rich cultural heritage that we wish to show you. The people of Novalja cherish their traditions and cultural heritage through religious ceremonies, a local dance called "naški" and traditional singing called "nakanat".

Novalja's camping heaven Straško, near the beach of the same name, and other beautiful beaches near Novalja will amaze anyone that loves outdoor vacation spots. Here too you will find hotels or traditional accommodation in private houses, where every guest is welcomed as a friend. You cannot go wrong whether you choose the rhythm of the town or the peacefulness of fishing villages in the shades of olive groves. Make online reservations or contact a local travel agent.

Catch the rhythm of the sun

Nestled under the white cliffs that look like the surface of the Moon is Metajna, a place always bathed in the rays of the sun. It is situated in a protected cove and surrounded by small gardens and only a little further by a rocky view that hides the abundance of fragrant plants. So take a walk, sail the sea, take a break and absorb the island's many sights and sounds. Feel the warmth of the sun.
